“Traveling from the Law to the Gospel in Romans”

The retreat will be held in the Log Lodge. Reservations are first come, first served. There are 26 lower beds and 10 upper bunks. If the Log Lodge fills, other housing is available in the Hilltop Cabins.

Schedule:

- Friday, 3:00 p.m. - Check-in begins. Enjoy the trails, walk the labyrinth, or enjoy the view.
- Friday, 5:30 p.m. - Supper then worship with communion, conversation, and campfire.
- Saturday, 8:00 a.m. - Breakfast
- Saturday, 8:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. - Session (breaks and noon meal provided)

Cost: $65 for the overnight - includes meals, lodging, and materials/$40 for Saturday only - includes meals and materials

 The Lay School of Theology is subsidizing the cost of the overnight portion of this event to keep the cost low for all participants.

This study will be an interesting and exciting look at a few chapters of Romans. We have a wonderful freedom in Christ and it helps us to enjoy this freedom if we know how it came about. Paul tells us about this gift of freedom in Romans. Pastor Jack Friedli is a frequent adult forum presenter and teaches often on his favorite book of the Bible, Romans..
